ACTIVITY

Winter 2

Elijah

A Good Name

The children will preview today's Bible Story as they complete a puzzle about Elijah.

Materials

For each child:

- 1 plastic sandwich bag
- 1 large piece of colored construction paper, 12" x 18"
- glue stick
- crayons

For the teacher:

- scissors
- large writing surface

Reproducible Pages:

- Page A, 1 copy for each child

Preparation

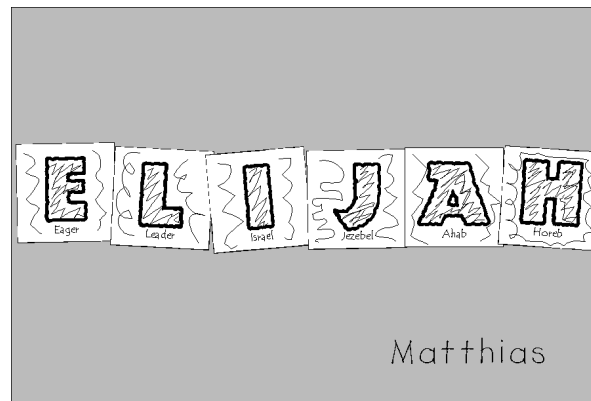

1. Cut out the square puzzle pieces from the copies of Reproducible Page A and place each set in a plastic bag.
2. Neatly print "ELIJAH" on the large writing surface.
3. Complete the activity to show the children a sample.

Instructions

1. Greet the children as they arrive. Explain that today they will be learning about the prophet Elijah whom God used to bring about a great victory for his people. Show the children your sample and tell them that they will each make one like it.
2. Distribute the bags you prepared, construction paper, glue sticks and crayons. Tell the children to put the letters of the puzzle together to spell "ELIJAH," as it appears on the large writing surface.
3. Have them color and then glue the letters in order onto the construction paper.
4. Circulate among the children to offer help and encouragement. Ask the children if they know any of the other words on their puzzle pieces. Help them read the words and explain that they come from this week's Bible Story.
5. Make sure the children write their names on their papers.

Teacher Tips

- If possible, bring in an illustrated Bible or children's books with pictures of Elijah on Mount Carmel.
- If large construction paper is not available, tape together two pieces of 9" x 12" paper for each child.

Materials

For the teacher:

- 1 piece of poster board, 22" x 28"
- markers or crayons
- scissors
- utility knife (optional)
- dark colored blazer for costume (optional)

Reproducible Pages:

- Pages B and C, 1 copy for the teacher

Preparation

1. Enlarge each of the pictures from your copies of Reproducible Pages B and C to fill an 8½" x 11" piece of paper.
2. Tape the pictures together, end to end, making a long "film strip."
3. Make a television screen out of the poster board. Draw a large square for a screen (about 13" x 13"). Cut two parallel slits (12" each) on opposite side of the "screen" so that the filmstrip will feed through. Draw additional details such as the power and volume buttons.
4. Practice presenting this story with a television announcer's voice and using the props.

Introducing the Bible Story

Open your Bible to 1 Kings 18. Tell the children that today's Bible Story comes from the Old Testament book of 1 Kings 18. Explain that this story is about a prophet named Elijah who had an awesome victory for God. Have you ever been the only person in a group that wanted to do the right thing? How did it feel? Has anyone ever tried to stop you from doing the right thing? What did you do? Elijah was the only prophet left in Israel who believed in the Lord! Everyone else followed the false gods called the "Baals." He had to stand up to more than eight hundred false prophets who did not believe in the Lord God. Elijah was the only one who wanted to worship the true God in Israel—and God gave him an awesome victory!

Presenting the Bible Story

Show picture #1. In a television announcer's voice say: Hello. I am _____, reporting for TV10, Mount Carmel's News Channel. In tonight's news, Evil King Ahab and Queen Jezebel have been plotting to kill Elijah, the only remaining prophet of God in Israel. It has been reported that Elijah has been hiding from Ahab in caves. In a bold move this week, Elijah asked for a meeting with King Ahab. The King called Elijah a troublemaker, saying that Elijah caused the rains not to come which then caused a famine in Israel. No food could be found anywhere!

Elijah told King Ahab that all the bad things happening to Israel were because the king had led Israel to worship false gods such as the Baals—instead of the true God—and had stopped obeying the Lord's commands. Elijah told Ahab that he would prove that the Lord is God in Israel. He told Ahab to bring 450 prophets of Baal and the 400 prophets of Asherah and come meet him on Mount Carmel. Elijah planned to show through a sacrifice who the true God of Israel was. Everyone agreed.

When all the prophets had assembled, Elijah told the people to make up their minds and decide which god they would follow. The people didn't answer. This is what the Bible says in 1 Kings 18:22-24:

Then Elijah said to them, "I am the only one of the LORD's prophets left, but Baal has four hundred and fifty prophets. Get two bulls for us. Let them choose one for themselves, and let them cut it into pieces and put it on the wood but not set fire to it. I will prepare the other bull and put it on the wood but not set fire to it. Then you call on the name of your god, and I will call on the name of the LORD. The god who answers by fire—he is God." Then all the people said, "What you say is good."

Show picture #2. The prophets of Baal built an altar and prepared a sacrifice. For many hours, they cried out and shouted to Baal to come and burn the sacrifice by fire. But there was no answer. At noon, Elijah began to make fun of the prophets of Baal, saying things like: "Maybe your god Baal is thinking, or on vacation. Maybe he is asleep. Shout louder! Wake him up!" The prophets of Baal shouted louder and louder, dancing around like crazy! Evening came and Baal still did not answer.

Elijah

Show picture #3. Elijah told the people to come to him. He built an altar to God and laid the wood and sacrifice on it. Then Elijah did something very unusual. He told the men to pour gallons of water on the wood and the sacrifice. He did this three times. There was so much water that it filled a trench—like a small stream—around the altar. Elijah wanted to show that God was so awesome he could even bring fire down to consume a soaking wet sacrifice. Listen to what the Bible says in 1 Kings 18:36-37:

At the time of sacrifice, the prophet Elijah stepped forward and prayed: "O LORD, God of Abraham, Isaac and Israel, let it be known today that you are God in Israel and that I am your servant and have done all these things at your command. Answer me, O LORD, answer me, so these people will know that you, O LORD, are God, and that you are turning their hearts back again."

Show picture #4. 1 Kings 18:38-39 describes for us exactly what happened after Elijah prayed:

Then the fire of the LORD fell and burned up the sacrifice, the wood, the stones and the soil, and also licked up the water in the trench.

When all the people saw this, they fell prostrate and cried, "The LORD—he is God! The LORD—he is God!"

Elijah had all the prophets of Baal captured and put to death. He then went to the top of Mount Carmel to wait for rain to come over Israel. After a heavy rain came, the power of the Lord came upon Elijah. Elijah escaped to Mount Horeb where he prayed to God. Ahab had threatened to kill Elijah for what happened on Mount Carmel. But God took care of Elijah, giving him time to rest and food to eat. Later, Elijah returned at God's instruction and God took care of him.

This has been quite an amazing week here at Mount Carmel. This concludes my report. Thanks for joining all of us at TV10. Stay tuned for more stories about God's awesome victories!

Share and Tell

Ask the children what they think was the most awesome part of this story. Ask them who they want to share it with this week. Tell them who you plan to share it with this week. Close with a prayer for the children to be like Elijah and tell people about their awesome God.

Teacher Tips

- You may choose to decorate a large box for your TV instead of the poster board.
- Set up the story center to look like a TV studio.
- Use a toy microphone if possible.
- If you are not able to enlarge the pictures, adjust the size of the poster board TV screen so that it is appropriate for the picture size.

Elijah

Slide Show

The children will make sliding pictures reminding them of the events that took place on Mount Carmel.

Materials

For each child:

- crayons or markers

For the teacher:

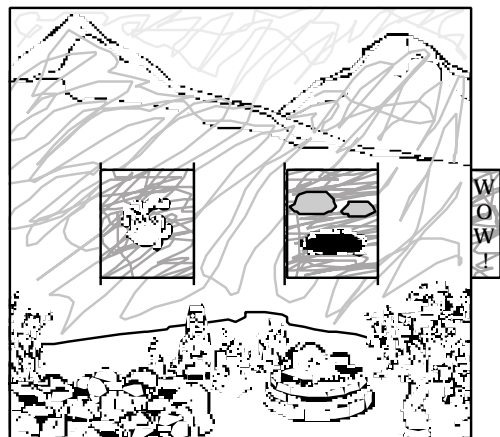

- scissors
- crayons or markers

Reproducible Pages:

- Page D, 1 copy for each child

Preparation

1. Cut out the pictures from the copies of Reproducible Page D.
2. Cut off the "strips" on the side the pictures.
3. Cut four slits on the pictures where indicated. See Figure A.
4. Make a sample of the craft for the children to see.

Instructions

1. Introduce today's activity: In today's lesson we are learning about Elijah and how God worked through him to reveal his power to the Israelites. Show the children your sample with the left tab pulled to the left side. Elijah is praying to God, and God is answering him by sending fire to burn his sacrifice. The prophets of Baal are upset because the god that they worship is powerless, a false God. Pull the strip to the right. Elijah is rejoicing because God's fire consumed the sacrifice, the stones, the water in the trench and even the ground near it. The sacrifice of Baal's prophets is still untouched. God showed his awesome power to all the Israelites. The craft today will remind you of what happened on Mount Carmel.
2. Give the children the pictures, strips and crayons. Have them color the pictures and strips.
3. Have the children weave the strip through the slits, first under then over, as shown in Figure B.
4. Demonstrate how to use left and right tabs on the strips to move the pictures from side to side.
5. Have the children write their names on the back of their pictures.

Conclusion

Remind the children how God revealed his power and protected Elijah by consuming the sacrifice on Mt. Carmel. Close with a prayer thanking God for his awesome power.

Teacher Tips

- Encourage the children to use their crafts to share this week's story with their families.

SCRIPTURE MEMORY

Elijah Step on It

The children will learn and memorize today's memory verse.

Scripture Memory Verse

"O LORD, God of Abraham, Isaac and Israel, let it be known today that you are God in Israel and that I am your servant."

1 Kings 18:36

Materials

For the teacher:

- 1 roll masking tape, 3" wide
- 1 roll of masking tape, 1" wide
- permanent black marker

Preparation

NOTE: You will want to arrive early to prepare this activity.

1. Using the one-inch masking tape, form a hopscotch frame on the ground. Make each space about 10" x 10".
2. Using the 3" tape, place a strip at the top of each box. Neatly print in large letters the sections of the Scripture Memory Verse as shown on the hopscotch diagram on the back of this Lesson Card.
3. Practice leading this activity.

Instructions

1. Introduce today's activity: In your Bible Story, you are learning that God used the prophet Elijah to show a large crowd of people God's power. God showed everyone that he was the only God, and he used Elijah to bring a great victory for Israel. In your Scripture Memory Verse, you will learn the words that Elijah spoke to God.
2. Show the children the Scripture Memory Verse on the back of this Lesson Card. Say it to them three times, pointing to the words as they follow. Ask the children to say it with you three more times, each time pointing to the words for them. Ask each child to stand next to you and say the verse together with you. Ask for volunteers to say the verse alone.

3. Show the children the hopscotch surface you prepared. Explain that the words to today's verse are written in the boxes. Demonstrate by saying each phrase as you hop through the verse. After you come to the last space at the top, step off the board instead of hopping back to the starting space.
4. Have each child take a turn hopping and saying the verse with all the children. Have each child hop and say the verse alone.
5. For the final rounds, remove one or two pieces of tape and have each child hop and say the verse from memory. Do this until all the words have been removed and the children can each say the verse from memory.

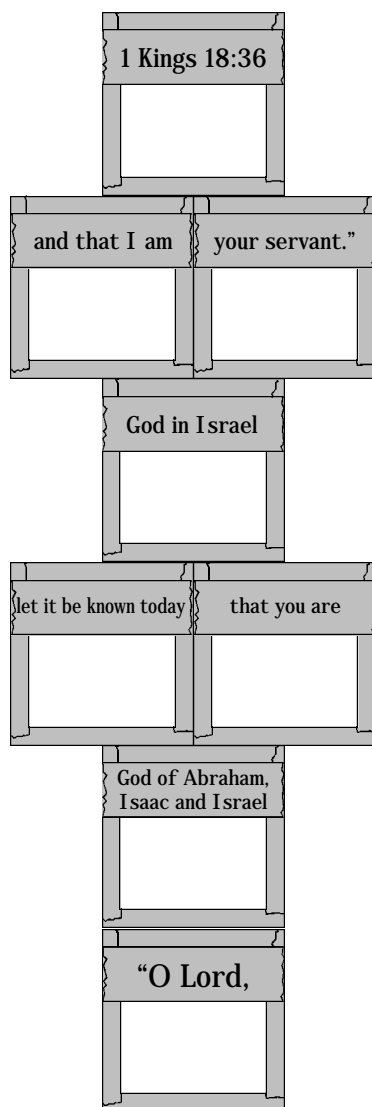

Conclusion

Explain to the children that Elijah wanted everyone to know that God was the true God in Israel. Ask them if they can think of someone that they want to tell about God. Close with a prayer thanking God for giving Elijah such an awesome victory.

Teacher Tips

- Do not use masking tape on a carpeted surface. You may substitute string for tape and anchor the corners. Write the words on strips of paper and place at the top of each square shown.
- When forming the hopscotch area with masking tape, leave about one inch on each end to form a small tab and tuck underneath. This should make the clean-up easier.

Remember Elijah

The children will review key ideas and events of this week's Bible Story as they play this memory game.

Materials

For the teacher:

- scissors
- envelope

Reproducible Pages:

- Page E, 4 copies for the teacher on colored, heavy paper

Preparation

1. Cut out all the cards from your copies of Reproducible Page E. Mix them all up and keep them in the envelope until class.
2. Before the children arrive for class, place the cards in four rows of seven, facing down.

Instructions

1. Greet the children as they arrive. Remind them that they are learning about the prophet Elijah who showed the prophets of Baal that God was the only true God in Israel.
2. Show the children the cards you prepared. Tell them to take turns turning over two cards at a time to try and find matches. Explain that each card has a word from this week's story. Encourage them to tell what they remember about each word as they find a match.
3. Give your set of cards to the Game Center teacher.

Teacher Tips

- For larger classes, prepare a set of twenty-four cards for every group of ten.
- If your budget permits, laminate these cards for greater durability and future use.
- If you cannot reproduce Page E on heavy colored paper, cut out and glue the game cards to colored index cards.

LIFE APPLICATION

One at a Time

The children will review this week's Bible Story as they think about the people they want to talk to about God this week.

Materials

For the teacher:

- school book
- one piece of sports equipment
- newspaper

Preparation

1. Read 1 Kings 18 to review the events of this week's Bible Story.
2. Practice leading this activity using the props. Be prepared to share from your own evangelism this week.

Reviewing the Bible Story

Open your Bible to 1 Kings 18. Remind the children that this week's Bible Story comes from the Old Testament book of 1 Kings. This week you learned about another one of God's awesome victories!

Elijah was the only prophet of the Lord left in Israel. He went to King Ahab, who was a very evil king, and said that the king and the people had sinned against God by following other false gods. Elijah called for a meeting with 450 prophets of Baal and 400 prophets of Asherah on Mount Carmel. They both offered sacrifices to their gods. And there Elijah proved that the Lord was the only true God in Israel. Only the Lord God sent down fire and consumed Elijah's sacrifice. The false god, Baal, did nothing. Elijah was outnumbered over 800 to one, but God took care of him and made him victorious!

Life Application

Explain to the children that in Elijah's day, many people did not believe in God. Instead, they believed in statues and gods made from wood or metal. This made the Lord God very unhappy. He sent Elijah to go and talk to the king and all the people to tell them that he was the only true God in Israel.

Bring out the items you prepared. Hold up the school book. What do your friends at school think about God? Do they ever talk about him? Do they believe in him? (Let the children respond as a group.) Can you think of anyone in your school that you should talk to about God? (Give each child a chance to respond. Share from your own experience sharing at work or school.)

Hold up the sports equipment. When you are playing sports, how do your friends act when they lose a game? Do they get mad? Do they ever blame God? (Take responses.) Can you think of someone on your team (or other activity) that you should share with about God? (Take responses. Share from your own experience of talking to someone in a club or at the gym about God.)

Hold up the newspaper. The newspaper is full of stories about people who do not know or understand God. It tells us that people are sad and angry and do things that hurt others because they do not obey God's words. What would we read in the newspaper if everyone tried to follow the Bible? (Take responses. Answers could be: "Young boy shares his lunch with a group of hungry children," "Young girl prays for her sick friend to be healed", etc.) Ask the children if they can think of someone who is having a problem that they could talk to about God. Share from your own experience of talking to someone who is going through a difficult time.

NOTE: Be discreet. Do not share a person's name or specific problems or sins.

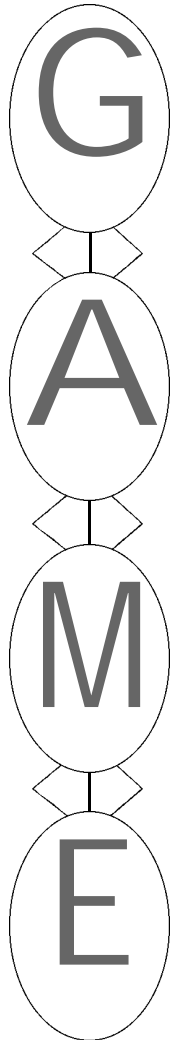

Conclusion

Encourage the children for their ideas. Help them to see that they are very fortunate to not be the only children who believe in God—they have each other, and their families and the church. Elijah was the only one and he did not let that stop him from telling people about God. Close with a prayer in which each child names one person they really want to talk to about God this week.

Teacher Tips

- Adapt the discussion items to best suit your class.

Where's Elijah?

The children will think about ways that God took care of Elijah as they play this card game.

Materials

For the teacher:

- scissors
- large writing surface
- rubber band (optional)

Reproducible Pages:

- Page E, 8 copies for the teacher on heavy, colored paper
- NOTE: Make arrangements to use the cards from Preclass and make only 4 copies of Reproducible Page E.

Preparation

1. Cut out the cards from your copies of Reproducible Page E. Remove seven of the Elijah cards so that there is only one remaining in the deck. You should have forty-nine cards.
2. Shuffle the cards and secure with a rubber band.
3. On the large writing surface, neatly print the words highlighted on the back of this Lesson Card, which also appear on the game cards.
4. Practice leading this activity.

Instructions

1. Introduce today's activity: In your Bible Story, you are learning that God used the prophet Elijah to show a large crowd of people God's power. Elijah was outnumbered by more than eight hundred to one. He was the only one in the crowd who believed that God was the only true God in Israel. God showed everyone that he was the only God, and he used Elijah to bring a great victory for Israel. After the victory, King Ahab was very angry and he threatened to kill Elijah. Elijah ran away from Ahab and hid. He prayed to God and God took care of him once again. In your game today, you will think about ways that God took care of Elijah as you play a card game.

2. Show the children the words on the large writing surface. Have the children say them with you. Briefly review the significance of each word using the guide and review questions on the back of this Lesson Card.
3. Show the children the cards you prepared. Shuffle them and distribute all the cards equally among the children. Tell the children to look at their cards and remove any pairs they have in their hands. With the remaining cards, they will play the rest of the game.
4. Choose a child to begin. Have him pick one card from the hand of the child to his right. If the card is a match, he should remove the pair. If not, it stays in his hand. Have the second child now take a card from the child on his right. Continue around the circle until all the matches are found.
5. The child holding the Elijah card at the end of the game is the winner.

Elijah Challenge

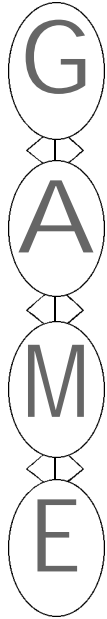

After all the matches are found, have the children say one thing about their matches that reminds them of how God took care of Elijah. For example: God took care of Elijah on Mount Carmel by giving him a victory over the prophets of Baal.

Conclusion

Ask the children to each say one way that God takes care of them. Close with a prayer thanking God for all the ways he takes care of his people.

Teacher Tips

- You may substitute the game cards in this activity with real playing cards. Adapt the deck by making the ace of hearts stand for Elijah and remove the other aces. Kings stand for Ahab, Queens stand for Jezebel, 2s stand for prophets of Baal, 3s for altar, 4s for sacrifice, and 5s for Mount Carmel. Make sure to write this guide in a place where the children can see it.

Where's Elijah?

Guide and Review Questions

Elijah—the man who led Israel to victory over the prophets of Baal.

- He was also called a _____. (prophet)

Mount Carmel—the place where Elijah met with the prophets of Baal.

- Mount is another word for _____. (mountain)

Prophets of Baal—the people who worshiped the Baals.

- Baal was a false _____. (god)

Ahab—the king who did evil in God's eyes.

- He was the king of _____. (Israel)

Jezebel—the woman who did evil in God's eyes.

- She was a _____. (queen)

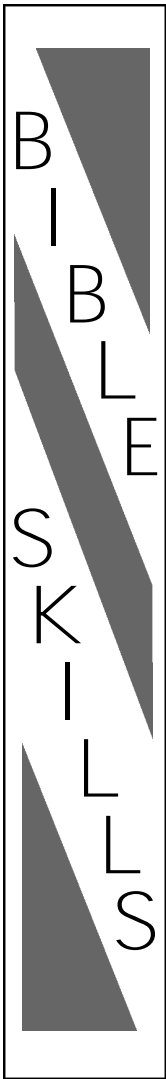

Altar—where Elijah presented his sacrifice to God.

- What did Elijah use to build the altar? (stones)

Sacrifice—what Elijah presented to God.

- What did Elijah pour all over the sacrifice? (water)

What Comes First?

The children will review their knowledge of the order of the books of the Bible in this fun activity.

Materials

For each child:

- pencil

For the teacher:

- large writing surface

Reproducible Pages:

- Page F, 2 copies for each child

Preparation

Complete the activity on your copy of Reproducible Page F.

Instructions

1. Introduce today's activity: In your Bible Story this week, you are learning that God gave Elijah a great victory on Mount Carmel over the prophets of Baal. Elijah showed all the prophets of Baal that God was the only true God in Israel. Today, God still wants us to tell people about him. We need the Bible to help us show people the amazing stories and miracles that God did for his people. In our activity, you will practice finding books in the Bible to help you know the Bible better.
2. On the large writing surface, neatly print the words: "Genesis" and "Malachi." Who can tell me where the book of Genesis is found? In the Old Testament or the New Testament? (Old Testament) Who can tell me where the book of Malachi is found? (Old Testament) Who can tell me which book comes first in the Old Testament? (Genesis)
NOTE: Be sure that the children do not confuse Biblical order with alphabetical order. Encourage them to use the list of the books of the Bible on their page to help them find the correct order.
3. On the large writing surface, neatly print the words: "Matthew" and "Revelation." Who can tell me where the book of Matthew is found? In the Old Testament or the New Testament? (New Testament) Who can tell me where the book of Revelation is found? (New Testament) Who can tell me which book comes first in the New Testament? (Matthew)

Elijah

4. Distribute one set of copies of Reproducible Page F and pencils to the children. Help the children to each find a partner. Be careful to pair confident readers with younger ones. Explain that in today's activity, they will decide which book comes first and circle it on their pages. Show the children the first one on their paper. It has been done for them. Do the second one together as a group.
5. Let the children work at their own pace to complete their worksheets. When all the children are finished, go over their answers together as a group using the Answer Key on the back of this Lesson Card.

Just Say It: Variation

To do this activity without pencil and paper in more of an "outburst" style, divide the children into two teams with Bibles. Call out a pair of books, e.g: Old Testament: Ezra or Exodus? The first team to raise their hands may answer first. Keep score for the teams.

Conclusion

Encourage the children for their participation. Distribute the second set of copies of Reproducible Page F to the children and suggest that they do it at home for homework, or with their family as a game. Close with a prayer thanking God for the Bible.

Teacher Tips

- To make this activity more challenging, have the children fold their list of Bible books under their worksheet and use their Bibles instead.
