Eph 2:14 For He Himself is our peace, who has made us both one and has broken down in his flesh the dividing wall of hostility

The goal of the Peacemaker:

If possible, so far as it depends upon you, live peaceably with all (Romans 12:18)

Don't let the rupture in the relationship be your fault.

The nature of God's peace

God's peace never evades issues. It does not gloss or hide, rationalize or excuse. It confronts problems and tries to solve them. And after the problems are solved it builds a bridge between those who were separated by the problems. It often brings its own struggle, pain, hardship and anguish, because such are often the price of healing. It is not the peace that can be brought by kings, presidents, prime ministers or diplomats. It is the inner personal peace that only He can give to the soul of man and only His children can exemplify

Peace busters

1. Contentiousness

Pro 26:21 As charcoal to hot embers and wood to fire, so is a quarrelsome man for kindling strife.

2. Gossip and Slander

Pro 16:28 A dishonest man spreads strife, and a whisperer separates close friends.

Before you repeat something:

- Is it true?
- Is it needed?
- Is it complete?

3. Seeking vengeance

Rom 12:19 Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave it to the wrath of God, for it is written, "Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord."

Reconciliation takes precedence over worship

Mat 5:22-24 But I say to you that everyone who is angry with his brother will be liable to judgment; whoever insults his brother will be liable to the council; and whoever says, 'You fool!' will be liable to the hell of fire. So if you are offering your gift at the altar and there remember that your brother has something against you, leave your gift there before the altar and go. First be reconciled to your brother, and then come and offer your gift.

Mat 18:15 "If your brother sins against you, go and tell him his fault, between you and him alone. If he listens to you, you have gained your brother.

#8 Blessedness of Persecution

"Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are you when others revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for so they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

Matt 5: 10-12

Is this teaching outdated?

According to the World Christian Encyclopedia, 16% (224 million) of all Christians live in 50 countries where there is severe state interference and harassment.

2 Timothy 3:12, "Indeed, all who desire to live a Godly life in Christ Jesus will be persecuted."

- 1st beatitude: condition of becoming a citizen of the Kingdom
- 8th beatitude: Character of one who has become a citizen-exposed to scorn, opposition, persecution as a result of righteousness
- In this beatitude, the disciple is triumphing by the sheer spiritual power of the Kingdom over forces of opposition.
- Living according to the first seven beatitudes guarantees one to experience the eighth at some point
- Those who live righteously will inevitably be persecuted for it.
- Godliness generates hostility and antagonism from the world
- The crowning feature of the blessed person is persecution

2Ti 3:12 Indeed, all who desire to live a godly life in Christ Jesus will be persecuted,

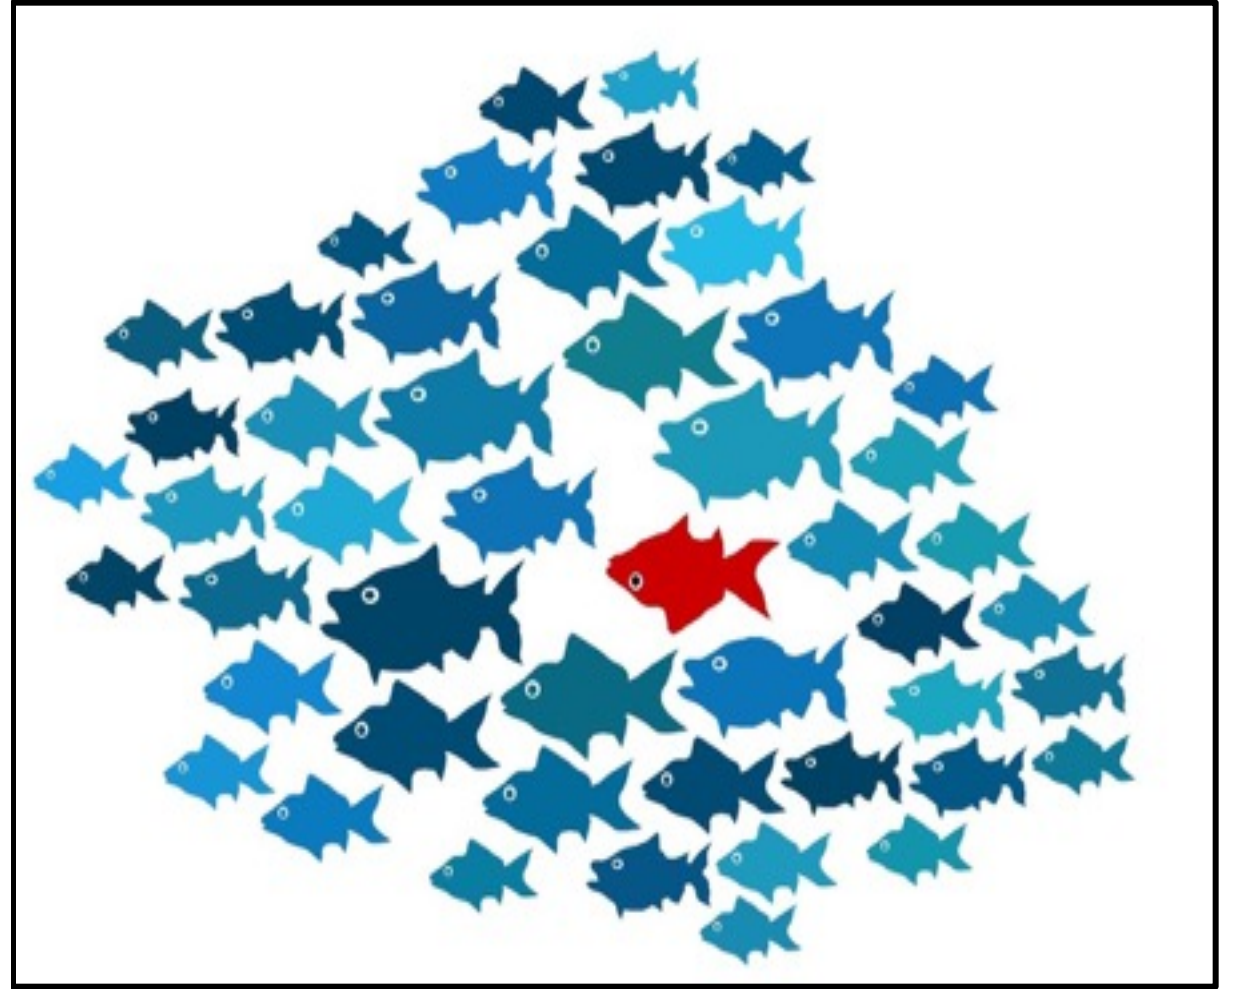

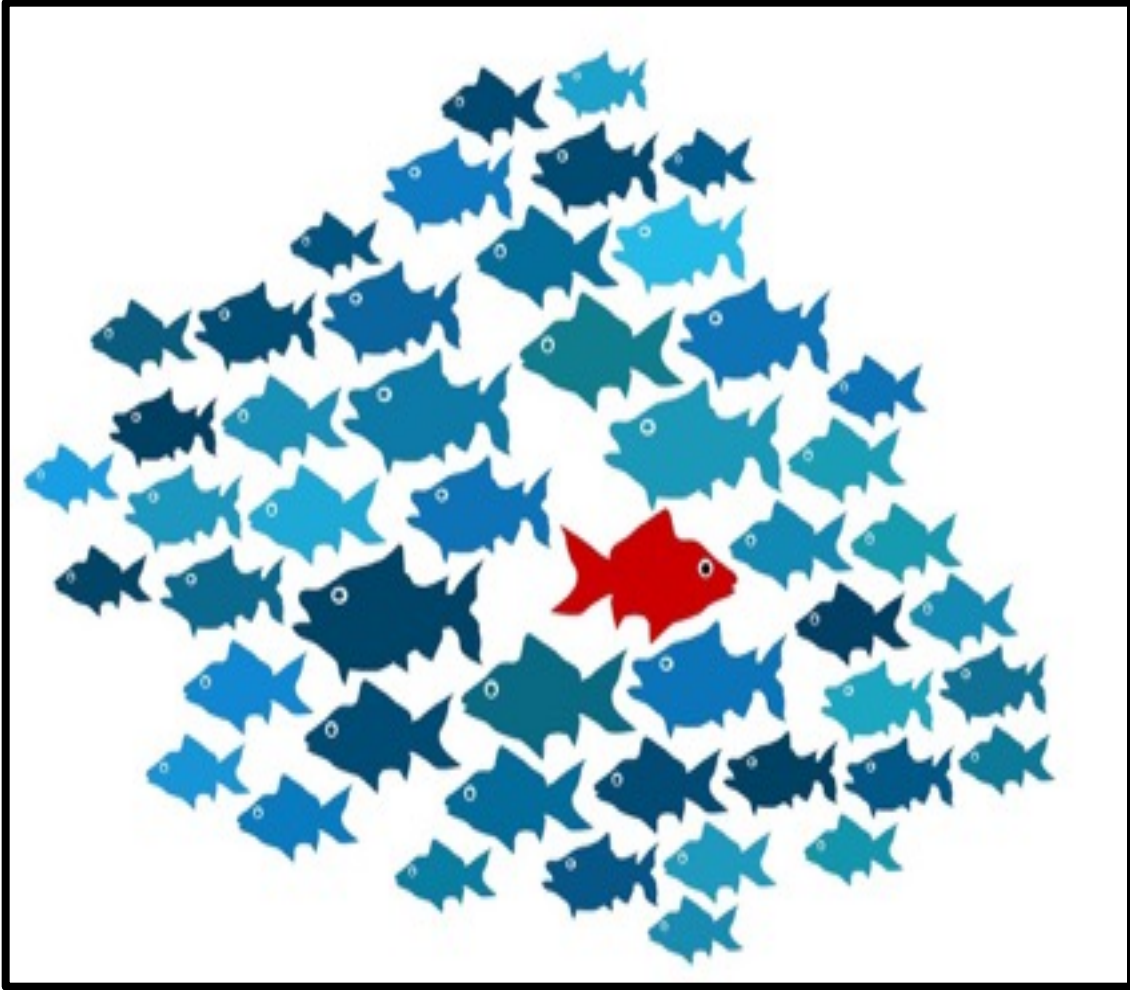

Joh 15:18-20 "If the world hates you, know that it has hated me before it hated you. If you were of the world, the world would love you as its own; but because you are not of the world, but I chose you out of the world, therefore the world hates you. Remember the word that I said to you: 'A servant is not greater than his master.' If they persecuted me, they will also persecute you. If they kept my word, they will also keep yours.

Heb 11:7 By faith Noah, being warned by God concerning events as yet unseen, in reverent fear constructed an ark for the saving of his household. By this he condemned the world and became an heir of the righteousness that comes by faith.

- If you cherish chastity, your life will be an attack on people's love for sex outside marriage.
- If you embrace temperance, your life will be a statement against the love of alcohol.
- If you pursue self-control, your life will indict excess eating.
- If you live simply and happily, you will show the folly of luxury.
- If you walk humbly with your God, you will expose the evil of pride.
- If you are punctual and thorough in your dealings, you will lay open the inferiority of laziness and negligence.

Polycarp (burned 156 AD)

*“Then the Proconsul said to Polycarp again, 'I will cause You to be consumed by fire, if thou despisest the wild beasts, unless thou repent.'
But Polycarp said; 'You threatenest that fire which burneth for a season and after a little while is quenched: for thou art ignorant of the fire of the future judgment and eternal punishment, which is reserved for the ungodly’”*

For great is your reward

Jesus sweat blood in Gethsemane in the face of his own pain, but for the joy set before him endured the cross.

2Co 4:17 For our light affliction, which is for the moment, worketh for us more and more exceedingly an eternal weight of glory;

2Co 4:18 while we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal.

Let your Christian light shine...

"You are the salt of the earth, but if salt has lost its taste, how shall its saltiness be restored? It is no longer good for anything except to be thrown out and trampled under people's feet. "You are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hidden. Nor do people light a lamp and put it under a basket, but on a stand, and it gives light to all in the house.
